Customer Reviews

Definitely not a children's book for elementary age children, maybe middle school and high school students would enjoy reading it. As a school Librarian, I found some of Yu's word choices to be pretty disturbing for children (ages 5 to 11) in elementary school. I gave the book 3-stars, because the story is very well written for an author who is only 15 years-old.

I loved every word & my son did too. What great story with super hero-ness and good everyday suggestions from a fellow kid about fresh breath & friendship.

This fits well with our super heroes summer reading theme. Kids will learn about super heroes and open up for discussions of what makes a hero. Will be easy to follow up with a design your own hero activity. A fun story that leads into more serious considerations.

This book is too wordy. The first person language is very casual. The content will put you to sleep. I wish that I could delete this from my library. my seven year old wanted to read something else after 5 pages. The only positive aspect of the book is that it was free. Still too expensive.

Story is simple and easy to read for the kids. Silly names and objects make it a fun book for them.

My son loves it ! And I think young kids will love it too! I give it a 5 star rating

Decent book for my little girl who wants to be super hero. Ok ok ok ok ok ok ok ok
