Customer Reviews

I happen to love the show OC and was excited when i saw the book but when i began reading i immediately saw i was not going to be impressed! The book was almost identical to the show, usually when programs are made into books there is always an added story line or an extra twist that did not happen on TV. This was exactly the same and the only few sentences the auther did add in were stupidly thought of and were inconsistent with the show. I think the only reason this book is selling is because it has the name OC
