Haiti: A Coloring Book For Grown Ups

Synopsis

Coloring isn't just for children. Explore Haiti through these intricate, hand drawn pen and ink drawings of typical scenes, landmarks, and favorite icons. Use your imagination to bring to life the market scenes with their vibrant fruits and vegetables, the sugarcane fields in their shades of green and brown, or the ocean with tropical fish, busy fishermen, and colorful dugout boats. Includes 32 original drawings. Printed on heavy white paper on one side only for easy coloring and removal.

Customer Reviews

In my ongoing search for coloring books featuring other places in the world, I came across this great, beautiful, book of the Hatian culture. Pictures are printed on one side of each page only on white paper about the strength of normal copier paper. You can use pens or markers with a blotter under each page, but there will be bleed through and colored pencils will work more perfectly. The pictures are well drawn of Hatian people going about their daily life at work and play and, of course gorgeous tropical scenes. I consider this one of my treasured coloring books as its theme is not just your everyday flowers and animals or mandalas, but rather a nod to a culture most of us know little of even though this island is located so close to the U.S. Happy I added this to my collection!

awesome book
