Customer Reviews

I should have done more research as to what this product was. I read this in less than 5 minutes and when they say "Running the World" this is what they mean - it is a brief running guide to a suggested running path in Chisinau (the capital of Moldova.) It also included a very brief intro to Moldova. Note to the writers: I am a runner and have been to Moldova many times - running around the main streets is something no local would ever do for sport and I would assume people would assume you are either mad or just robbed a bank and did not have a car to escape in. There is a park in Botanica (one of the districts of Chisinau) where locals have started taking up running for sport near the Jumbo shopping center.

It's very short and absolutely not useful!
