Customer Reviews

Dr. Herbert Mayo teaches finance at The College of New Jersey and is a former director of accreditation. A well-respected author and experienced educator, he has written several successful books focusing on critical finance issues and today's investment opportunities. He earned his PhD from Rutgers University and his undergraduate degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The book is in crappy conditions but for the price alright i guess , it was really torn and cover is falling apart there is also a lot of water damage in the back (half the book).but most page are still read-able and fine.

The book I received is practically falling apart, I think you need to get rid of this book or glue it or something!

I don't know if it's the kindle app or the actual digital textbook, but it was extremely slow and a pain to navigate.

Exactly what I was expecting.

Great book! I used this for my masters degree. It was recieved in great condition.

excellent

the book quality is good.

Over complicates investments.
