One of Dover's most gifted and versatile artists, Marty Noble is the creator of over 200 Dover items, including regular and stained glass books, stickers, tattoos, stencils, CD-ROMs, and more. Marty has also expertly re-created the art for most of the "Color Your Own . . ." series and dozens of our bestselling Creative Haven coloring books.

The artwork in this book is gorgeous & I love it!! My negative is the paper!! Why can't better quality paper be used?!?! Too smooth..

Wonderful art work and very happy.

Lovely art in this one.

À À Marty Noble is one of my favorite designers. This is her second coloring book of Angels (though the first one released in the Creative Haven line.) The designs are elegant and beautiful, as one expects from this designer. They are delicate and detailed with lovely backgrounds as well. She always provides enough room for blending and shading so you can make these designs your own. The angels in the designs range from children to lovely adult women. The scenes sometimes include animals. Many of the designs represent a certain subject, such as a stained glass window, music and several with angels in motion with birds. Simply beautiful and fun to color. I noticed that the feel of the paper is slightly smoother than some of the Creative Haven books I have received recently. It also appears to be slightly thinner as I can vaguely see some of the from the design below. I've noticed that the paper seems to change quite frequently on these books. Because of that, if you buy one of these books, it may be slightly smooth or slightly rough depending on when and where it was printed. Colored pencils still work well with the slightly smoother paper (see below.) This is what I experienced while coloring in this book and testing the paper with my coloring medium. 31 Elegant and Gorgeous New Angel designs by Marty Noble. The designs are printed one side of the page. Paper is the usual Creative Haven quality: white, medium weight, slightly smooth and has perforated pages. Glue Binding but with perforated pages so removing a page is fairly simple. The designs stop well before the perforations. The designs have a variety of styles of framing lines at their outer edges. Alcohol-based markers bleed through this paper. Water-based markers bleed through in spots (somewhat heavier than with previous paper in the Creative Haven line) and show colorful shadows on the back of the page. Gel pens and India ink pens leave shadows of color on the back of the page. India ink pens can bleed through when I apply more than one layer of ink. Coloring pencils work well with this paper. I was able to get good pigment (color) lay down, layer the same color and multiple colors and to blend easily using a pencil style blender. I tested both oil and wax-based pencils with similar results. Hard lead pencils, like Verithins, leave dents on the back of the page. I suggest either removing pages from the book to color or using a blotter page under your working page. I like card stock as it keeps ink from seeping through and damaging the pages below.

Wow!!! Marty Noble has done it again. 31 beautiful angels to color. I normally don't order without a preview but I own several of Marty's books and knew I would not be disappointed! Neither will you. Angels are spectacular!!!

Incredibly lovely artwork. It is as wonderful as her goddess, mermaid, and other angel coloring books. I have just completed my second picture in the 2 days since receiving this book. Love it!

I gave this to my daughter and she is so happy
