Very fun and informative

Susan Van Allen took me on a fabulous tour of Italy through the eyes of someone who REALLY understands and appreciates the wonder of the "Big Three": Rome, Florence, and Venice. With her personal travel experience and passion for the cities, she approaches the book like a savvy, trusted Italian friend- feeding us insider secrets on literally EVERYTHING there is to know and do to make the most out of your trip. She incorporates something special called "Golden Days" recommendations, which combine the best sights with nearby restaurants to give readers authentic advice on how to have wonderful days in Italy. The author has a really unique approach of taking travelers beyond the obvious "must-sees" like so many guidebooks do; I felt like I was immersed in a VIP tour! Readers get DETAILED recommendations on cooking and craft classes, walks, side trips, and beyond- the list of tips are endless. HIGHLY recommend- makes a great gift for men and women alike, and is even an entertaining read for an armchair traveler. Makes me want to jump on a plane right now!

Susan van Allen's guide leads you to some of the most wonderful nooks and crannies of Italy's most popular cities. Even if you've traveled to Venice, Florence, and Rome before, you'll find something new and refreshing in this guidebook full of Susan's hand-selected experiences and favorite spots. Susan leads small groups to Italy every year, and knows how to take you by the hand and show you some of Italy's most fun places. A great guide for first-time visitors and more experienced Italophiles!

I LOVE this book! If you love Italy, you NEED this book - man or woman! As someone who travels to Italy every few years or so, the author gave me so many new and unique ideas for touring around such a magnificent country, while also giving very helpful pointers for revisiting the classic tourist attractions. The look, size and feel of this book just makes you want to book your plane ticket immediately to go back to the Mother Land! this is a great Christmas gift, or stocking stuffer, for the woman in your life who loves all things Italy!
