Customer Reviews

Pamela Pollack and Meg Belviso have co-authored several children's books, includingÃ Â Who Is J.K.Ã Â Rowling?Ã Â andÃ Â Who Was Steve Jobs?

This book is a great educational tool, but there are some really difficult words to pronounce, and the book is constantly using abbreviations for the African counsels Mandela worked with. It was hard to keep it all straight.

High interest for my 4th grade students, a difficult topic to understand when you lack a world-view, but this book bridges that gap well! Would recommend for an elementary biography unit.

Daughter loves the book, nice addition to the "Who Was" series

5 Stars. Great book and so is Mandela's legacy. I loved how Mandela was voted as the first black south african president

You will really learn a lot about South Africa and how Nelson Mandela helped black people. It is also a great historical book

I think this is one of the best book I have ever read in my life. It tells who is Nelson Mandela and what he did for South Africa. I encourage you guys to read this book. This book truly is an awesome book. I love this book so much I am going to read more about Nelson Mandela.

This book helped me a lot on my report on him thank you so much Nelson Mandela you are my hero
