No No Yes Yes (Leslie Patricelli Board Books)

Synopsis

YES! This must-have toddler title sheds light on some concepts with a comical flair. Yanking cat by tail: no NO. Gentle pat on back: yes YES. And it's funny how dumping a bowl of food gets a very different reaction from mastering the use of a spoon. An expressive baby demonstrates familiar behaviors and their predictable responses in an amusing board book that merits a giant YES!

Featured/recommended Richmond Parents Monthly --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Leslie Patricelli is the author-illustrator of five other popular board books for toddlers, as well as the picture book THE BIRTHDAY BOX. She lives in Seattle.

I love Leslie Patricelli books in general but I wish this one didn't have the baby smiling when it was doing something wrong.

My two year old loves this book and asks us to read it to him over and over again. I have also been able to remind him of a few of the situations (pulling the cats tail, running from mom and dad) in our everyday routine and gotten him to behave himself because he remembers what the "yes yes" behavior is from the book. I do think that the "no no" scenarios have given him some ideas that he wouldn't have otherwise thought of, but it luckily hasn't resulted in anything too terrible or messy. Overall, he really enjoys the story and pictures and seems to be understanding the lessons.

I give most her other books a 5 star rating. However, this one I have hid from my daughter. A lot of the 'No No' things listed my daughter does not do and I don't want to be giving her ideas.

My kids love this book. Really good tool for teaching young ones about good behavior. Pictures are funny and always get a laugh from my little ones

It's really funny, but it's a bad influence for toddlers who are already mischievous. My son got naughty ideas from it.

This is a great book for teaching toddlers appropriate behaviors while keeping it fun and cute. My son has it memorized now and he will say, "No, no - it's not nice to pull the cat's tail. But, yes yes, I can pet the kitty softly." Or, "No, no, coloring on the wall, but yes yes coloring on paper." It sounds simple, but when my son saw it in such a fun way with the cute little drawings, he really took to it. I've never had a problem with him wasting tons of toilet paper or coloring on walls and part of me thinks its because of this simple book. (Not that he's perfect, he has his trouble-maker times, too!). Anyway, it's such a helpful book, I would definitely buy this for a child's first or 2nd birthday.

My two year old son absolutely ADORES all of these books. He even quotes them when we're out! He has the baby doll and goes night night with "baby" every night. The pictures are engaging, the subjects help him learn (or they're about toots and just funny!) They're just wonderful.

We have most of the Leslie Patricelli board book. They are simple and have been the first books we've read to our babies. They are simple a short enough to maintain their interest. The illustrations are well done. My kids look forward to the light of "other" things at the end of each book and we point to each one while they say them. They are board books, so are very durable and have last through multiple children.
