SIMPLE JEWISH COOKERY

Synopsis

Simple Jewish CookeryCarpe Kitchen! The door of the Peter Pauper Press vault has swung open to release our legendary old-school cookbooks— for your e-reader! Whether you wish to revisit fond memories of your grandmother’s matzoh ball soup or try your hand at babka for the first time, Simple Jewish Cookery is your guide to the time-honored nosh. Culinary matriarch extraordinare Edna Beilenson outdid herself with this compendium of traditional dishes as they’re meant to be. Serve her take on Chopped Liver at your seder, and you’ll be anything but. Skip the bakery and eat your Shabbos Challah warm from the oven. Try your hand at savory homemade Gefilte Fish--the stuff in the jar isn’t a patch on it. If you’re not much for fish, fry a golden Knish. Bakers may find their new favorite Hamantashen recipe. Dig a little deeper and try a lesser-known Purim treat, Honeyed Nahit, or sweeten the new year on Rosh Hashanah with Teglach. Lovely woodblock prints illuminate the recipes.

Customer Reviews

I can't tell you how thrilled I am to see this in a Kindle version. This was my first Kosher/Jewish cookbook after I got married 27 years ago. It contains all the classic Jewish recipes that no Jewish grandmother would be without - only I was not even a parent, and my Mom was not ready to part with Grandmom's recipe collections. This is a small but essential collection for anyone who wants the classics. You will find recipes for chopped liver, chicken soup, borscht, kugels, knaidlach (matza balls), babka, and all the other old-world recipes that are an integral part of most Jewish celebrations. NOTE: in the original printed edition, there was no table of contents nor index; I created my own on the blank pages at the back of the volume.

If you know in advance that this is a Jewish cookbook but not a kosher one then this makes things a little easier. Never the less the recipes I tried were good. Very reliable. I bought this cookbook because the first one fell apart. I have used it for years.

Growing up, my Mom had all the Peter Pauper books in the series. Being able to get this one in particular, so I could make the cookies she used to make...was priceless. Glad to see it on Kindle!

had an older one for years. this is my second copy. simple easy recipes

Good condition!

Perfect go to book for dependable, easy and good holiday recipes. This is my second copy. The first got worn out!
