Jennifer Renee Reed works in advertising, but loves exploring historic sites, parks, roadside attractions, and oddities in her spare time. She lives in Cincinnati.

This book provides a colorful guide to day trips in and around Cincinnati. It is well written and provides many "off the beaten path" ideas for travel seekers of all ages. You are bound to read about a place you have never been to but are now dying to visit. The book highlights travel destinations that are great for repeated visits and provides beautiful color photos of areas of interest. This is well written and an excellent reference guide.

This was a gift for a couple new to the area and they really enjoyed it!

I think it would be helpful for those who live in the area and want something to do. I found it difficult to find things to do in the city limits.

If you live anywhere close to Cincinnati this is a must have ~ I Love this book

Never have a boring weekend again. Dozens of ideas great for singles, couples and families! All in a book that can go in your glove compartment!
