Customer Reviews

Not as effective or as easy to read as Periplus maps of other Asian cities, and did not wear well at all.

Expanding the map to better see the streets, only makes them blurry. I expected more.

The map is outstanding but it took a long time to arrive!

nice thick paper. excellent map. lots of extras included in map - hotel and restaurant locations too.

Excellent resource.

My brother bought this map and used it when he came to visit me last month, and I have mixed feelings about it. On one hand, you can get much better (more accurate and up to date) maps here in Kyoto that are locally made, but like most things in Japan, they will cost you double or triple. On the other hand, it does get most of the major thoroughfares and attractions right, and that's what 99% of tourists will be concerned with anyhow. Bottom line: if a longer-term expat (or considering becoming one), then invest in one of the expensive local maps...if you're just passing through for a few days, this is fine given the price.

Map is well made, sturdy and looks very detailed. Lots of good information. Will try and update after I use it.
