Customer Reviews

"We longtime residents of Ottawa have no reason to actually buy this book, right? What is there worth knowing about our hometown that we don't already know? Arthur Montague's compendium of local minutiae points out there's more to this city than meets most eyes." — "The Ottawa Citizen" "A great little book that is full of interesting facts as well as fun trivia. It will keep you reading for hours. Highly recommended." — "Muchmor Canada"

Arthur Montague is a freelance writer. He lives in Ottawa.

This book has a lot of interesting information. However, it seemed like it would have been helpful to either live in, or be familiar with, Ottawa, to get the most out of the book. The information is also getting dated. There were references to elections "coming up" in 2010, and whatnot. However, as I'm vacationing in Ottawa soon, the book did help with my understanding of the city, its history and the like, and gave me some ideas about what I want to visit. I'm pleased with my purchase.

Book contained only historical facts about the city and was expensive for what it was. The book could not be used to plan a trip to Ottawa. It's now in our Goodwill box.

A. Book geared toward Canadians, those interested in facts about Ottawa, and those going on Jeopardy. Not for vacationers and casual and casual reader or those deciding if they might want to immigrate..
