Poorly written. The word allah is written in Arabic randomly throughout the book. This is a children's book and will be tossed around and taken into the bathroom by my children. The story seems ideal, but it does not represent school anxiety for children, which is what I was expecting. The story line is basic, kids come home from school, eat a snack, go to "madrasa", write Arabic alphabet, read Quran, color, eat a snack, pray, and go home. That's it. I was expecting a book about going to school for the first time (normal school, not an after school type of school), that my child can relate to. This was definitely not it. Even in the event my child went to "madrasa", I would not get this book.

Super cute story! I love the pictures and my son really enjoys when I read this book and he can relate (he's two). Wonderful!

Very cute little book!
