Customer Reviews

I have read both his books now and enjoyed them as a more real version of travel. I feel like I have been along with them and it helped to use their facebook page "The Long Way Up Pan American" to see the colour photos as my kindle only does grainy black and white shades.

Good read but what is it with ripeo? I am assuming it is the authors word for gravel but the word doesn't exist. Other small editing errors and spelling issues as well but the content is good.

Great read

The writing is poor. I don't really like bike adventure stories where every detail of their personal life is documented and everyone has a giant BMW with every gadget. I may finish it someday but it didn't hold my interest. "Lois on the Loose" and "Old man on a Bike" were much better written and much more interesting for riding this trip. Maybe I am biased. I ride medium bikes. I ride alone. I've seen most parts of the world. And I'm in my 55th year of riding. Why is it everyone thinks they are a writer just because they can put sentences together.
